GROUP SCHOLARSHIP AWARD 2026— FAQ

Does the scholarship cover my child's tuition fees for previous semesters?

No. The scholarship will only cover your child's tuition fees from the semesters/years it was granted for.

How will the scholarship funds be paid?

The funds are paid on a reimbursement basis, where you are required to submit the payment receipt of your child's tuition fees to your respective HR Representative for verification and reimbursement.

Will the scholarship cover extended semesters?

It depends. In these cases, you will need to submit a request to the sponsoring company. Contact the HR Representative of your company for further details.

How important are academic results for the scholarships?

We do place importance on good academic results and forms a key part of our selection criteria. But we also look at the student's overall profile, including family background, extra-curricular activities and hobbies, as well as the field of study the child intends to pursue.

Are there preferred academic institutions?

Priority will be given to courses offered by local public and private academic institutions that are reputable.

Do you offer scholarships to study overseas?

We may consider applications for those wanting to pursue an overseas education or twinning programmes on a case-to-case basis. Apply anyway!

When is the opening and closing date for the scholarship application?

The scholarship application will be open from April each year. All applications must be received by 30 May 2026 to be considered for the scholarship.

GROUP SCHOLARSHIP AWARD 2026 – FAQ

What happens if I miss the application deadline?

Late submissions will not be considered. But you may apply again next year!

I am interested to apply for the scholarship. What is the application process?

- There is only 1 application form that need to be submit.
- You, as the parent of the candidate, will need to fill up an application form. A team will then assess all application forms to shortlist candidates. Your child will be notified to attend an interview too so that we can get to know him/her a little better.

Can I email information for the application directly to the HR team?

No, you are required to complete the online application form for ease of verification and the selection process.

My child has not received an offer letter from any University. Can I still apply?

- You may apply for the scholarship first. If we do offer your child a scholarship prior to he/she receiving a university/college offer letter, it will be regarded as a “conditional offer”.
- If shortlisted, your child may email us a scanned copy of the university/college offer letter prior to the scholarship interview, or bring a copy of the letter along with him/her on the interview day.

Can I apply if my child or I have a physical disability and impairment (with OKU status)?

You are encouraged to apply and we may give special consideration to your application

GROUP SCHOLARSHIP AWARD 2026 – FAQ

Should the documents submitted be original?

During the online application process, you will need to upload a certified true-copy of the supporting documents. If your child is shortlisted for an interview, he/she will be required to submit the certified true-copies of school certificates etc during the interview session. Please take note that your application will be rejected if we find that you have forged the documents or provided false information, especially information related to your financial status, exam results or/and family background in the online application form.

I made a mistake in my application form. Can I resubmit another application form?

Yes, you can but please note only the last/latest submitted application will be considered, not the prior ones. Please take time to focus on filling the application form correctly to ensure that the information is complete and accurate.

Where will the interview be held? How long will it take?

- Shortlisted candidates will be required to attend face-to-face online interviews with a panel of interviewers.
- We will only consider alternative options based on the severity of a candidates' circumstances and will be decided on a needs basis.
- Previously, shortlisted candidates were required to attend a face-to-face interview session

What is the dress code for the interview session?

The dress code is casual. No need for suit or tie, dresses and jackets.

How will I or my child know if he/she has been awarded the scholarship?

Your HR Representative will notify you once we have finalised the list of scholars

Is my child allowed to receive other scholarships after receiving the Hong Leong Group Scholarship Award?

No. If your child decides to accept another scholarship, he/she has to immediately inform the respective HR Representative at your company (the sponsoring company) and refund the paid funds.

GROUP SCHOLARSHIP AWARD 2026 – FAQ

What will happen to my child's scholarship if he/she decides to attend another college/university or change his/her course?

Your child will be required to submit a written request to the sponsoring company, which will be reviewed by a committee. Please contact the HR Representative of the sponsoring company for further details.

Can my child lose the scholarship?

Yes. Your child may lose the scholarship if:

- Your child does not maintain satisfactory academic results, attend classes regularly and actively pursue his/her chosen course, as stated in the scholarship agreement. Make sure your child reads the scholarship agreement carefully.
- If your performance at work consistently falls below the rating 3.
